Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-7, 10, 16-21 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dikeman (1596240). Dikeman discloses an ignition plug having shell 1, insulator 10 and cocoon-shaped chamber 3 extending beyond the inner surface of the head, page 1, lines 65-75. A plurality of orifices 5 communicate with the combustion chamber. A pin electrode is provided at 25.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 8, 9, 22 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dikeman (1596240) in view of Stephenson (1945870). Stephenson discloses an ignition chamber extending below the surface of the head and includes peripheral apertures at each end of the chamber that communicate with the combustion chamber. It would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Dikeman to have apertures at each end of the ignition chamber to effect thorough venting, as taught by Stephenson on page 2, lines 3-43.

Art Unit: 3747

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 11-15 and 25-29 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-10 and 16-24 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

The spark plugs made of record and not relied upon are considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
